COMING TO TERMS.

Chinese Offer to Deliver the Ministers At Tsin Ssin.

Coplicting Stories From Pekin,
But No Recent News From The Invasion.

Washington, Aug. 6.—According to an imperial edict, issued August 2, China has come to the terms laid down by the United States. Free communication with the Ministers has been ordered, and they have been invited to leave Pekin for Tien Tsin at their pleasure. Gen. Yung Lu has been assigned to command a picked escort and is to be held personally responsible for their safety. This much comes from consular and press reports, and the Ministers are not heard from directly. In striking contrast with this news also comes press and consular reports that the Chinese have begun fortifying in front of the British legation; that the transmission of food to the legationaries has been ordered stopped; that Gen. Li Ping Heng, who commands the hostile troops, besides ordering the execution of numerous pro-foreign Chinese, has impeached Li Hung Chang and Liu Kuh Yu, Viceroy of Nankin, for maintaining communication with the Boxers. The advance of the relief column from Tien Tsin began last Thursday, but there is no news of its progress.

FIFTH WEEK.

Bayonet Bill May Take The Stand
To Testify.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 6.—The fifth week of the trial of Caleb Powers will begin today. Among the witnesses scheduled for this week is ex-Gov. Bradley, who is expected to contradict much of Robert Noaks' testimony. One of the witnesses in rebuttal is expected to be Green Golden, one of the men indicted and now in the Frankfort jail. He is expected to contradict certain statements made by Powers. The defense expects to finish by Friday and the commonwealth will then take several days for rebuttal. The assassination crowd claim that Powers has made out a strong defense, but according to his own statements he was a leader of the conspiracy and brought the intrepid armada to Frankfort.

MAN KILLED

And Four Show Men Arrested For It.

Marion, Ky., Aug. 5.—Four employees of Buckskin Bill's Wild West Show were arrested in Princeton yesterday and were brought here to-day, suspected of having been concerned in the clubbing to death of C. C. Wheeler Friday night. All four were lodged in jail, but through fear of mob violence all three were returned to Princeton for safekeeping, the fourth, a boy, remaining in the custody of a special bailiff. He will be given an examining trial Thursday, when the three men will be returned from Princeton. There is no undue excitement and no danger of mob violence.

IDENTITY DISCOVERED.

Victim Was a Waiter at Dawson
Hotel.

The identity of the negro found dead, dressed in woman's clothing, at Dawson, has been discovered. Wooten Voo was his name and he was a waiter in one of the Dawson hotels. He had been to a cake walk and had walked in female costume. He became intoxicated later in the night, and went to sleep on the railroad track and was struck by a train.

YOUTSEY

Says Taylor Put Up The Money to Pay The Assassin.

Refuses to Deal With Negroes,
But Demanded a White Man
To Do The Killing.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 4.—A sensational statement, signed and corrected by Henry E. Youtsey, is in the possession of the attorneys for the prosecution. In it he makes a clean breast of his connection with the Goebel murderer, admits having offered $1,200 for the murder of Goebel, and says that when he went to Taylor for $300 more to get Hockersmith to commit the crime Taylor said: "I'LL BE DAMNED IF I WILL AGREE TO BIND MYSELF TO NEGROES."

Later on Taylor said that if any one was to kill Goebel it would have to be a white man, before he became a party to the scheme.

This statement has been in the possession of the prosecution for weeks and the lawyers now divulge it on account of an agreement which they claim has been made between the attorneys for Powers and the counsel for Youtsey.

Ordered The Cartridges.

The substance of Youtsey's statement is that on January 22 he mailed a written order to Powell & Clements, dealers in guns and cartridges, on Main street between Fourth and Fifth Cincinnati, O., for a box of metal patched bullets. On the morning of Wednesday, January 24, the bullets were received in Frankfort by Youtsey. They were metal patched bullets, and are known in mercantile parlance as steel bullets. ***

Assassins Hired.

Youtsey said that on Thursday, January 25, he "arranged" with "Tallow Dick" Combs and Mason Hockersmith to kill Goebel on the morning of Friday, January 25. The shot was to be fired from the office of the Secretary of State and the murderers were to escape through the basement. Combs and Hockersmith demanded $1,500 for committing the murder. Youtsey had but $1,200 and claims that he went to W. S. Taylor and finding him alone in his office, told him that he had at last found two men who had agreed to kill Goebel and stop the contest for the governorship. "Who are they?" inquired Taylor.

"They are negroes," replied Youtsey. "One of them is named 'Tallow Dick' Combs and the other Mason Hockersmith."

Taylor Wanted White Murderers.

"I'll be damned if I will agree to bind himself to negroes," is the reply which Youtsey says Taylor made to him. Youtsey then told Taylor that he had $1,200, but the men demanded $1,500 and that in order to have the jobdone he would have to raise $300 more.

Youtsey says that Taylor put his foot down on the scheme and said if any one was to be hired to kill Goebel it would have to be a white man before he would become a party to it.

Deboe Knew About It.

Youtsey said that he then became disconsolate, but met United States Senator Deboe that night and told him of the arrangement he had made to have Goebel assassinated.

"That will not be necessary," was Deboe's reply, according to Youtsey. "I think I have fixed it so that Berry will be seated in the Legislature. When that is done the backbone of the opposition will be broken. Goebel cannot hope to win with Van Meter out of the way.

Taylor Gets Squeamish.

RELIGIOUS DEBATE.

Controversy at Oakwood, Tenn., Over Doctrinal Questions.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 31.—At Oakwood, Tenn., a debate was begun yesterday between Elder Petty, of the Christian church, and Elder Yancy Wilson, from Hopkinsville, of the Seventh Day Adventist church. The latter is an evangelist and has been holding tent meetings in the Oakwood neighborhood for some time past. Yesterday Elder Petty affirmed that the Bible and science teach the absolute immortality of soul and that it is conscious from death to the resurrection. To-day Elder Wilson takes the negative of this proposition. To-morrow Elder Wilson affirms that the kingdom of Christ will be seen upon earth at his second coming and on Thursday Elder Petty will affirm that the church and the kingdom of Christ are one and the same thing, and that it was set up on the first Pentecost after his resurrection. Great crowds are being attracted by the debate. The meetings will be continued after it is over.

EAGLE SEIZED A CHILD.

Narrow Escape of a Little Girl at Sheboygan, Wis.

Sheboygan, Wis., July 26.—An eagle swooped down upon the three-year-old daughter of Thos. Smith near here to-day and was making off with the child in its talons when it was killed by a well directed shot by the child's father.

The bird measured six feet and a half inches from tip to tip of its wings. The child was not injured.

The midsummer holiday Century is chiefly notable perhaps as introducing a writer hitherto unknown, of whose power to interest those who never read serial stories the editors feel confident. The new comer Miss Bertha Runkle, is a young woman in her early twenties, and the scene she has chosen for her first effort in fiction is Paris at the time of the accession of Henry IV. The story which will run for several months if called, "The Hemlet of Navarre." It is announced as a dramatic romance of love and adventure characterized by great inventiveness and by rapid and absorbing action. Among the characters are the King and his opponent the Duke of Mayenne. In the department of fiction the August Century contains a humorous monologue. The Author's Receiving in Simierville by Ruth McEuen Stuart, and three other stories by Laura E. Richards, Lillian Hamilton French, and Mary Knowles Bartlett,—an interesting instalment of Wm. Mitchell's "Dr. North and his friends." An article that takes the reader for a stroll is John Burrough's first on the Harriman's expedition to Alaska and the Bering Sea.

JOHN D. CLARDY, Director.

This is a co-operative company and insures only farm property. It is now in its 21st month. Loss ratio to date has been on an average of only 28cts per hundred dollars of insurance. This is cheap insurance for 21 months.

We propose to give the farmers insurance for about one half that is now being charged by other companies. We do not insure city property and country stores, therefore we do not tax the insurance to pay losses $600,000. We have some of the leading farmers of Christian County insured in this Company.

Ask our agents for a name list of the insured and for any other information you desire.

HOT WEATHER.

Prophet Marsh Says August Will be a Scorch.

The Ohio Weather Prophet Marsh promises very hot weather in this month, with severe wind and electrical storms. The waters in the river will be very low, and many of the river men will be compelled to tie up their boats. If he is right a terrific hurricane will sweep the West Indies between the 16th and 18th, and there will be a terrific rainfall at Savannah, Ga., flooding the lowlands and damaging the cotton and rice crops in that vicinity. There will also be great storms at other Southern points. There will also be several storms of unusual magnitude on Lake Erie between the 3d and 5th, and on Lake Michigan between the 17th and 18th. There will during the month be severe wind and hail storms in the Dakotas. Between the 7th and 8th cyclone winds over the Middle Mississippi Valley and the Upper Missouri Valley, but fair, seasonal weather on the Rocky Mountain Slope. Between the 10th and 15th there will be high winds without much rainfall throughout the greater portion of the United States, with high wind and light rain over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia. The hot wave will come between the 16th and 20th, with very high temperature covering the largest portion of the United States, terminating terrific electrical storms, particularly severe in the Eastern States. This torrid weather is to be followed between the 24th and 27th by heavy electrical storms, high wind and much rain and hail in the Ohio Valley. There will also be rough weather in the South and West during this period.

The midsummer holiday Century is chiefly notable perhaps as introducing a writer hitherto unknown, of whose power to interest those who never read serial stories the editors feel confident. The new comer Miss Bertha Runkle, is a young woman in her early twenties, and the scene she has chosen for her first effort in fiction is Paris at the time of the accession of Henry IV. The story which will run for several months if called, "The Hemlet of Navarre." It is announced as a dramatic romance of love and adventure characterized by great inventiveness and by rapid and absorbing action. Among the characters are the King and his opponent the Duke of Mayenne. In the department of fiction the August Century contains a humorous monologue. The Author's Receiving in Simierville by Ruth McEuen Stuart, and three other stories by Laura E. Richards, Lillian Hamilton French, and Mary Knowles Bartlett,—an interesting instalment of Wm. Mitchell's "Dr. North and his friends." An article that takes the reader for a stroll is John Burrough's first on the Harriman's expedition to Alaska and the Bering Sea.

Primaries in Tennessee insure an easy victory for Congressman E. W. Carmack for Senator, over Judge Snodgrass.

Fifty thousand Democrats are expected to attend the notification ceremonies at Indianapolis to-morrow. Bryan and Stevenson will reach Indianapolis this evening.

A barber named Harkelrode, introduced by Powers to impeach Wharton Golden's character, or cross-examination admitted that he was a gambler and fugitive from justice under many indictments for various crimes. He was altogether about as "reputable a citizen" as Barber Weaver, the perjuror used to trap the prosecution with.

One of the surprises of the North Carolina campaign was that many of the negroes voted with the Democrats without being asked to do so. A good deal of this sort of voting was done in this State last year. Even the better class of negroes are learning that a man is sometimes judged by the company he keeps.

The Republican leaders are much exercised because they cannot get able campaign orators to go into Maine prior to the State election there, Sept. 10. The indications are that the Republican majority will be cut down considerably as a consequence and this will have a depressing effect. The same is true in regard to the Vermont campaign.

It took the terrible experience of two years ago to bring the people of North Carolina to their senses and the present Republican administration is the last that will ever set that State. By a majority of 60,000 votes, the constitution insuring Anglo-Saxon supremacy in the future has been adopted. Let us hope that the people of Kentucky, profiting by their own bloody experience with assassins and their colored allies, may rise up like their brethren in North Carolina and rid themselves forever of the murderers who have brought disgrace upon our beloved State.

Address, F. J. CHENYER & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

It is a trifling matter to begin a campaign, but we find a batch of them in the last issue of the Messenger, a paper that has usually been run upon different lines. The article appears to be a vicious assault upon the editor of the KENTUCKIAN and is signed "W.M." Whether this stands for Mulbatten, Mackauchan or old Mandacity himself, the reader is left to conjecture. This scribbler starts out with the falsehood that the object of his venom is Election Commissioner threw out "429 legal, undisputed and unchallenged votes from the Hopkinsville court house precinct."

This is the face of the sworn testimony of Republican officers that the election was not held according to the forms of law. Not a Republican lawyer in Hopkinsville will stake his reputation as a lawyer upon the truth of the statement this fellow so glibly makes. The court of appeals has decided at least one question involved, that affecting 233 unsigned ballots, and the circuit court sustained the board in all its acts, no appeal being taken by the Republican lawyers, who knew the election in that precinct was in flagrant violation of the law and would not stand in any court. And still this villain has the gall to assert that the votes not counted were "legal and unchallenged." A statement of this character can only affect the mental standing of the author. If the commissioners were at fault, it was in exceeding their jurisdiction, and the court said they acted right. No truthful man of any party will assert that the excluded votes were "legal and undisputed." If we must have campaign liars, they should at least be plausible and artistic in their efforts.

William Henry Jones was withdrawn, in spite of his vigorous protests, and Mack Moss will be made the Republican candidate for Congress in the Third district. Let us wish Brown Democrats that get nothing out of the deal follow "Mass" into the Republican party? That's the question. On this subject the Bowling Green Journal says:

"When the Republicans of this district expect to purchase all those who voted for Brown last fall at the price of a seat in Congress for Mack Moss, they make a very egregious blunder. Many of those men who voted for Brown did so because they thought it was right and not as a mere matter of politics. These same men are still Democrats to the core and are enthusiastically for Bryan and will not be led by a Republican political trick into voting against the National Democratic ticket. For in the fusion arrangement they are expected to vote not only for Moss but for Yerkes, McKinley and the entire Republican ticket."

According to Powers the army of feuds brought to Frankfort to assassinate Democrats were all men of good character and high standing, but his attorneys are now busy trying to prove that Powers lied when he said this. They have introduced witnesses to prove that Golden is a bribe-taker, Cullion a thief, Nason a liar and Youtsey an assassin himself. These are the leaders of the army who cooperated with those other angels of blood and purity, Bill Taylor, Chas. Finney and Caleb Powers; what must the rank and file have been?

Four special elections were held in Kentucky yesterday to fill vacancies in Democratic districts, but the Republicans hope to capture one or two of them. J. W. Jackson, of Union; and S. W. Tolson, of Boone, will be elected to the Senate. In Campbell county the contest for Senator between E. W. Hawkins, Dem., and W. H. Dyer, Rep., is close and doubtful, and in Woodford County it is hard to predict whether Lewis Nockus, Dem., or W. L. Can non, Republican fusionist, will win for representative.

Evidence continues to accumulate that Wm. Goebel laid down his life to rescue Kentucky from a band of assassins, who were bound together so closely that they had arranged a secret cipher code for telegraphic communication with officers of the partisan State militia. So bold is the game they are now playing that some of the attorneys defending the assassins are called upon to explain themselves. At least one of them, George Deany, himself, telegraphed for 1,700 rioters soon as Goebel was shot.

Another ultimatum has been sent to the Sultan of Turkey.

Gov. Beckham went to Bardstown Sunday to celebrate his 31st birthday.

McCREEARY TO MANAH.

The Democratic State Central Committee met at Covington Aug. 2 and settled the Seventh district trouble by ordering a primary election for Sept. 29, in the entire district. Trimble accepts the arrangement, but Moody refuses and disputes the authority of the committee and wants to appeal to the courts.

The following Campaign Committee was named:

First District—Gus G. Coulter, of Mayfield.

Second District—Sam J. Shreckford, of Owensboro.

Third District—John S. Rhea, of Russellville.

Fourth District—Charles C. Spalding, of Lebanon.

Fifth District—H. A. Bell, of Louisville.

Sixth District—John M. Laessing.

Seventh District—Louis DesCognets, of Lexington.

Eighth District—James B. McCreary, of Richmond.

Ninth District—Bernard Taylor, of Mayfield.

Tenth District—John W. Barber, of Martinsburg.

The Eleventh district was left open, as James Garnett, the member from that district, was not present.

B. W. Bradburn, of the Third district, was placed on the committee as a member from the State-at-large.

James B. McCreary was unanimously chosen as Chairman.

SIX SHOTS FIRED.

Attempt Made To Assassinate
Broussais Gregory.

Broussais Gregory, while driving along the road near his father's residence not far from Church Hill Sunday evening about dark, was attacked by a man who shot at him four times with a pistol. The man attempted to stop him and took him by the arm and as Gregory began to reach into the bottom of his buggy for a pistol, the assassin fired two shots at him at close range, the balls lodging in the buggy back.

After Gregory secured his pistol, two more shots were exchanged as Gregory drove rapidly away. It is not known whether the object was robbery or assassination. The man was either a light mulatto or a very dark white man.

THOSE BIG FINES.

They Still Stand Against Lawyer Yonts.

The fines against L. Yonts, of this city, in the police court at Madisonville, had not been remitted Friday and it is not believed that they will be. The first fine was for $75 and costs and the second for $85 and costs, making a total of $136.00. After his second arrest Yonts was locked up. Many of the Republicans here are outspoken in their condemnation of his conduct at Madisonville.

His removal as Deputy U. S. Marshal would not be a surprise.

[Read from First Page.]

Youtsey over Berry the Republican was drawn into confusion and Youtsey again went to Taylor.
told the Executive that something had to be done, that the Democrats were robbing them of their offices and that the occasion demanded immediate action. Youtsey related the conversation between him and Taylor then as follows:

"It is a horrible thing, Youtsey, to contemplate murder," said Taylor.
"I know it," replied Youtsey,
"but it must be done."

"I will never consent to hiring the negroes," spoke up the Execu-tively.

Taylor Puts up The Money.

Youtsey then said that some one else could be secured and asked Taylor for the $300. Youtsey said that Taylor thereupon handed him over the $300.

The lawyer for the prosecution to whom Youtsey made the statement wrote it out at the prisoner spoke it. When Youtsey had gotten that far Powers' detective, J. B. Mathews, entered the room. Youtsey jumped up and exclaimed hysterically: "I'm ruined now; I'm ruined now! I will say no more. I cannot tell."

An Incomplete Story.

Since then Youtsey has said nothing. He refused to tell to whom he gave it to any one. But he did say that a white man fired the shot from Powers' office at the time. The names of Frank Cecil and — Colgan, of Bell county, were mentioned in that connection, but Youtsey could not swear that they were in the room.

Youtsey claims that he himself was not in the office when the shot was fired, but that he kept watch at the door leading into the main hallway and that he brought the mountaineers from the Agricultural office to the Executive building to protect the assassins.

As to Jim Howard's movements
Col. Campbell says that Howard left Manchester on January 28 and reached Frankfort at 9:37 o'clock on the morning Goebel was shot.

Exculpates Himself.

Youtsey's last interview with Taylor when the latter gave him $300 to make up the $1,500 was twenty-four hours before Howard left Manchester. The attorneys for the prosecution believe that Youtsey can tell who fired the shot. Col. Campbell says that recently Youtsey's attorneys, R. W.
Nelson and L. J. Crawford held a conference with the attorneys for the prosecution and told them they would allow Youtsey to go on the stand and tell all he knew providing the indictment against Youtsey should be dismissed. This the prosecution absolutely refused to do.
Since the attorneys for Youtsey and the counsel for Powers have been much together, and Col. Campbell believes they have reached an agreement.

Big Barbecue.

A grand barbecue will be given at Lucas' Spring, near Caledonia, Trigg county, next Saturday. Arrangements have been made for a number of good speakers to be present on the occasion and a good time is promised those who attend.

death.

much better Sunday, and is now thought to be out of danger.

GREAT CROWD

Preparing to Take the Old Point Outing.

The crowd from this city and surrounding country that will leave for Old Point Comfort August 14 will probably be the largest that ever left this place on a similar occasion, judging from the number of names already handed in. The date of departure is yet nearly two weeks off and many others will decide to go later and join the party at the last moment.

Reservations in the Pulman sleeper set aside for the Hopkinsville people are being taken every day and if names continue to come in as they have during the past few days two sleepers will be needed to accommodate those who wish to go from this section.

An elegant party from Cadiz will join the Hopkinsville people here and there will be several from the towns of Gracey, Pembroke, Trenton, Casky, Crofton, Adams, Springfield and other points around to swell the list.

Clarksville will be represented by probably thirty or more and Russellville and Bowling Green will each furnish good delegations.
This is the most delightful outing that people from this section could select and taking in consideration the very low rate offered there is reason why any one contemplating a vacation should go.

Late information is to the effect that Paducah, Mayfield, Princeton, Henderson, Evansville and Owensboro will each be well represented on the trip.

IN FULL BLAST.

ville, a Baptist minister and a native

Persians."

EXTREME PUNISHMENT.

Mother, (to small boy who has provoked her patience): "Now, Willie, if you bother me another single time you shan't go to the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, Aug. 13-18."

Willie: "Oh, mother, I won't,

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap Exclusively.

MILLIONS of Women Use CUTICURA SOAP, exclusively, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors! No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.

COSTLY GIFT.

Testimonial To Mat Adams By 100 Citizens.

Presented Friday Night With Appropriate Speeches At First National Bank.

Mr. J. Mat Adams, late agent of the L. & N. Railroad, was presented with an elegant silver chest Friday night, by a committee of citizens representing the 100 donors. It was given to him as a testimonial of the esteem in which he has been held by the business men of the city for the last ten years.

A carriage was sent for Mr. Adams and upon his arrival Mr. E. B. Bassett was chosen chairman and Mr. T. C. Underwood secretary of the meeting.

Mr. Thos. W. Long stated the purpose of the meeting and then presented the service in the following speech:

"Years ago, Mr. Adams, when you came into our midst we were careful in receiving you. The road you represented was not in public favor; to-day, we are proud to acknowledge you as a friend, and one to whom we are all more or less indebted for some personal favor, and we take this occasion to say that the popularity of the L. & N. R. R. in this section of the State, is due largely to your universal affability, courtesy and tact in the conduct of its affairs.

"It affords us great pleasure to present this token of love and esteem from one hundred citizens of Hopkinsville, in itself not of great value now, but if Mr. Bryan is elected this fall may form a nucleus around which sufficient capital may be gathered to build, equip, and operate a branch of the L. A. & T. from Hinsleyton to Peacher's Mill and elect you President. May it bear a message of affection and confidence from each subscriber.

"In justice to those of your friends, whose names do not appear on this list, we beg to say, that the committee could have secured as many more, and actually declined some subscriptions after the necessary amount had been raised. Allow us to express our deep regret that you are to sever your connection with our city, and an earnest desire that you may find such a reception elsewhere as you so richly deserve. We tender in advance our congratulations to the community in which you may locate."

A hard-wood chest with a tray in the top and a drawer below, both plush-lined and very elegant, is arranged to hold each piece in its place. The sets are all engraved with the name of Adams.

The service is perhaps the finest in the city and is a very valuable one.

The movement to present the testimonial was almost spontaneous. As soon as it was put on foot, the voluntary subscribers soon reached the limit of 100 and many subscribers were declined.

Mr. Adams has not yet announced his future plans and will not do so for another month, as he prefers to rest until September.
